

Contents

	Acknowledgments	ix
	Introduction: Questioning Marriage Anita Bernstein	1
PART I:	Challenges to the Status of Marriage
1	The Meaning of Marriage Martha Albertson Fineman	29
2	Taking Government Out of the Marriage Business: Families Would Benefit Dorian Solot and Marshall Miller	70
3	What Place for Marriage (E)quality in Marriage Promotion? Linda C. McClain	106
PART II:	Some Perils of Attempting Abolition
4	Anthropological Perspectives on the Abolition of Marriage Lawrence Rosen	147
5	Marriage as a "Badge and Incident" of Democratic Freedom Peggy Cooper Davis	171
6	The State of Marriage and the State in Marriage: What Must Be Done Mary Lyndon Shanley	188
	Afterword: Narrowing the Status of Marriage Anita Bernstein	217
	About the Contributors	237
	Index	241