

Contents

Introduction: What Is Reproductive Politics?	1
1 Racializing the Nation: From the Declaration of Independence to the Emancipation Proclamation, 1776–1865	27
2 Sex in the City: From Secrecy to Anonymity to Privacy, 1870s to 1920s	63
3 No Extras: Curbing Fertility during the Great Depression	103
4 Central Planning: Managing Fertility, Race, and Rights in Postwar America, 1940s to 1960	131
5 The Human Rights Era: The Rise of Choice, the Contours of Backlash, 1960–1980	163
6 Revitalizing Hierarchies: How the Aftermath of Roe v. Wade Affected Fetuses, Teenage Girls, Prisoners, and Ordinary Women, 1980 to the Present	209
Notes	255
Acknowledgments	287
Index	289
About the Author	303