

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Preface by General Editor	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Notes on the Contributors	xi
Introduction: Gender, Equality and the State from 'Socialism' to 'Democracy'? Rebecca Kay	1
Part I: Equal but Different: State Socialism and Women's Roles in Public and Private Life	19
1. 'We were very upset if we didn't look fashionable': Women's Beauty Practices in Post-war Russia Yulia Gradska	21
2. How to Combine Motherhood and Wage Labour: Hungarian Expert Perspectives During the 1960s Ildikó Asztalos Morell	41
3. Reprivatising Women's Lives: from Khrushchev to Brezhnev Natalia Vinokurova	63
4. Wives or Workers? Women's Position in the Labour Force and in Domestic Life in Sweden and Russia During the 1960s Helene Carlbäck	85
5. Heroine Mothers and Demographic Crises: the Legacy of the Late Soviet Era Sue Bridger	105
Part II: (Re-)Negotiating Gender, Equality and Difference in the Post-socialist Era: Rights, Participation and Marginalisation	123
6. 'In our society it's as if the man is just some kind of stud': Men's Experiences of Fatherhood and Fathers' Rights in Contemporary Russia Rebecca Kay	125

vi Contents

7. The Right to be Different? Sexual Citizenship and its Politics in Post-Soviet Russia 146
Francesca Stella
8. Russian Women's Perceptions of Human Rights and Rights-based Approaches in Everyday Life 167
Vikki Turbine
9. Doubly Disadvantaged? Gender, Forced Migration and the Russian Labour Market 187
Larisa Kosygina
10. Press Images of Human Trafficking from Russia:
Myths and Interpretations 211
Mary Buckley
- Index* 230